the claim of the appellant Gopalan
one-third share of the Puja hak enjoyed by his brother Venkatramayya who died without issues has been recognised and that there is no dispute on this point. But he has not been put in charge of the Pujari duties, on the ground that he wears w & s, while the two other two-thirds hissedars do not wear it. The Assistant Comr observes in his judgment that all the devotees of the temple object to the appellant doing puja with w & s; that they have no objection to his doing puja without it, which the appellant would not listen to; and that therefore in the interests of the temple he considers it inexpedient to put him in possession of the one-third share, against the wishes of the devotees.

2. The appellant's contention is that

that the reason assigned for the alleged disqualification, viz, his wearing a sacred thread, is purely a sentimental one and untenable and that the so called disqualification cannot deprive him of his right to succeed to his brother's share -

3. The Dy Comrs of the Bangalore and the Mysore Districts were asked to report upon the practice obtaining in some of the temples where Satanis perform the puje. In reply the Dy Comrs of the Bangalore District submit the reports of the Amildars of Bangalore, Anekal and Nelamangala Taluks. From these reports it is observed (i) that most of the Satanis do not wear a sacred thread (ii) that a few do wear it; but that there is no dispute between the two parties. From the reports Dy

Commissioner's Rubkari it is observed (i) that there are two sections in the Satani Community - one following the Dravidian principles and the other Andhra customs; (ii) that the former do not wear పుస్తె, while in the latter one of the brothers wears పుస్తె and the other does not; and (iii) that the question as to whether the devotees do not object to the puja being done by the Gujari wearing పుస్తె cannot be ascertained as there are no such persons in the temples at Anyore Sreeranjapattanam and Melkote.

Subd to the decree

Appellant Eddaiah's right to succeed to ~~his brother~~ to the 1/3 share the deceased of his brother has been recognised and there is no question on that point. Eddaiah however wears a పుస్తె and the devotees object to be disciplined as it will be an innovation. The encroachment shows that puja was all along being performed by ~~two~~ persons bearing Rs 93 + 00. In all interests of the temple, I think, the Board Committee was right in not putting the ~~petitioner~~ officials in possession of the temple. We may employ a Devasthanam who has Rs 93 + 00,

and there keep to the old practice.

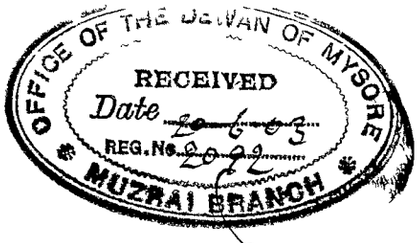
Appellant. Gopalia - Pujari of the temple of Sri Venkataramana -Swami, at Talakayalakonda, Sidlaghatta Taluq. Kolar Dist.



The abovenamed appellant beg to prefer this appeal against the order of the Assistant Commissioner in charge of the Muzarai Department, Kolar Dist. dated 17th February 1903, on the following among other grounds:-

I That the learned Assistant Commissioner erred in not putting the appellant in possession of the Pooparika of the temple, though he & the Amildar (of Sidlaghatta) found on enquiry, as a matter of fact that the appellant is entitled to succeed to one-third share in Pooparika of the said temple.

II That the reason assigned for his disqualification, viz., (That he being Satani, wears Janivara (Sacred thread) against the rules of his caste & that, therefore, the devotees ~~objected to~~ taking prasadam from him mistaking him for a Brahmin.)

is purely a Sentimental one & untenable & not convincing, and thus so called disqualification if it be called a disqualification at all is, it is humbly submitted, not such a one as to deprive the appellant of his right to succeed

III That the learned Asst Commissioner failed to observe that the witnesses who called themselves devotees of the temple, were in collusion with the other Poojaris, to deprive the appellant of his right, and these witnesses can't, in any way, be said to represent the whole class of devotees of the temple.

IV That the learned Asst Commissioner has brought his own views upon the subject without any evidence to support them; and that his enquiries at Chintamani and Dibbur Halli are not to be taken as legal evidence so binding upon the appellant as to deprive him of his right These enquiries were mostly conducted behind the back of the appellant.

V That the appellant has not been given opportunity to prove that the devotees are not objecting to his performing Pooja and that Satanis wearing Janivara are actually performing Pooja in various temples belonging to this Province.

VI That there are many temples in Chintamany Taluq, Srinivasapur Taluq, Sidlaghatta Taluq, Chickaballapur Taluq & various other Taluqs, where the Satanis wearing Janivara, are worshipping & the devotees & the Govt have not taken any objection.

For the foregoing grounds the appellant humbly prays that the said Order may be set aside & he may be put in possession of Poojarika.

Office of the Assistant Commissioner &
in charge of the Mussyna department, Kolar Dist

Dated 14th February
1903

Order

This is an appeal against an order passed by the Amildar of Sidlaghatta in the Mussyna department and was referred to me by the Deputy Commissioner for disposal as per Govt Orders on G.O. 35-44 of 8th July 1901.

2 Venkataramiah who had an one third share in the poogaru of the Talakayala Betta Venkataramana Swami temple in the Sidlaghatta having died about 3 yrs back, the appellant Gopalick presented a petition to the Assistant Commissioner that he was the brother of therefore entitled to succeed to his share of the Sroogaraiko, as the said died without issues; and that the other brothers Ramaswamy and others (Respondents) were keeping him out of the enjoyment of Venkataramanaiah's share and praying therefore that his claims to succeed to his brothers share may be recognised and he may be put in charge of it without opposition from the other co-brothers. This petition was sent to the Amildar for disposal. The Amildar made a detailed enquiry into the case in the presence of both parties and found that Venkataramanaiah having been adopted by one Thimmakka Gopaliah (appellant) was not entitled to succeed to this property as a brother but that as Venkataramanaiah had left no issues and as Gopaliah was the nearest Sapinda in the adoptive family he was, as such, entitled to succeed to his 1/3rd share of the Sroogaraiko Jeyaretna ... respondent. ... Thirdly, however declined to hand Gobalsetti possession of the disputed property as all the devotees of the temple objected to his doing poojas on the ground that he was wearing yajnopavita (sacred thread) and that they would not worship at the temple if a non-brahmin wearing yajnopavita were to do poojas there. Against this order of the Amildar the present appeal has been filed.

3. From the records of the Case, it is clear that the appellant is entitled to succeed to the deceased Venkatarayappa his share, of the property as nearest heir of the latter in his adoptive family though not as his uterine brother. The only question to be considered is therefore whether it is fair and expedient in the interest of

of the public and of the temple. I. must therefore be in possession of his share.

4. The appellant is a Satani (non-brahmin Vaishnava as he calls himself) by caste, and as such he is not entitled to wear yajnopavita (holy thread) The respondents who are also of the same caste are not wearing yajnopavita. The devotees of the temple object to a yajnopavita-wearing Satani doing puja at the temple, as probably the wearing of yajnopavita by the appellant would lead to his being taken for a Brahmin by strangers and to Prasada being taken from his hands. They are also averse to the idea of ~~this~~ there being two kinds of pujaries in the temple one

One (respondent) met the others of Jagannadha and the other (appellant meeting Jagannadha and thereby giving himself an assumption of superiority, which should be galling to his colleagues. From enquiries made by me at Chintamani on 11-9-02, where the parties, the shanbogue and some of the devotees of the temple
were present and at Dibbooru halli on 13-9-02, where many of the devotees of the temple were present, (the appellant being absent although he had been ordered to appear with any body who would support his claim) I learnt that all the devotees were against the idea of this appellant doing pooja with Jagannadha and were likely to renounce their adherence to the temple if he be allowed to to do poojas. They have no objection to his doing poojas without honours. This of course, is a proposal which the appellant would not be entitled to, in the interests of the temple concerned. It is not desirable to press into the pooja arike one who is objected to by all the devotees on religious grounds though such grounds may not be reasonable from a Rational point of view. I am sure the interest of the institution will suffer if we force upon the worshipping public a poojari whom they dont like and for whom they cannot therefore, have any respect or reverence. Hence, while admitting the appellant's claim to receive the Kuttakaranmai his 1/3 share in the pooja, I consider it inexpedient to put him in possession of such share against against the wishes of the inmates who object to his doing so. with ojanivara. I therefore dismiss the appeal

Petition Regd no 2092, dated 20th June 1903, from Gopaliah, Pujari in the temple of Sri Venkataramana swami at Jalakay Konda, Siddaghatta Taluk, appealing against the order of the Muzrai Assistant Commr of the Kolar District, declining to put him in possession of one third share of the poojarike in the said temple, on the ground of his wearing "janivara" or the sacred thread, contrary to custom.

(2) Letter no 1342, dated 25th September 1903, from the Deputy Commissioner, Kolar District, submitting the records relating to the above.

(3) Rule & Karies Nos 100 & 430, dated 8th April and 5th March 1904, respectively, from the Deputy Commissioners of the Banga lore and the Mysore Districts, reporting upon the practice obtaining in their respective Districts in the matter of wearing Jannivara by Satani Pujaries.

And (4) the opinions of the Agamiks employed in the Sanctuaries Murjai Dept. ~~, on the question and the texts bearing thereon~~.

Order thereon

The facts of the case are as follows:—

One Venkataramanaiah, a Satani by caste, was in possession of $\frac{1}{3}$ share of Pujariki in the Jalakiyadkonda Venkata ramanaswami temple at Siddaghatta. He having died 4 years ago, without issue, his brother by name Gopaliah, the present appellant, pet.

the Asst Commissioner of the Distrct, praying that he might be appointed to the share of the Pujaraship which was enjoyed by his deceased brother Venkata ramaniah. The Amildar to whom the petition was referred held a detailed enquiry in to the matter, and found that Venkataramaniah having been adopted by Nimmalkka, the one pet.r Gopaliah was not entitled to succeed to the poojaship as brother of Venkataramaniah but as the latter died issueless, the petr was entitled to succeed as the nearest dáyádi in the late pujari's adoptive family. The Amildar however declined to allow him to do the puja work in the temple on the ground of his wearing Janiwara, to which 1/3 share of puja

The Sirdlaghatta Suluk to be held, after due enquiry, found the petitioner was entitled to succeed to his brother's share, but which was objected to by the other two hissedars as well as the 2/3 share who were also Satanis and the devotees of the temple

~~objected~~. The Magisterial Asst. Commr. (Mr. K. Srinivasa Iyengar) to whom an appeal was preferred, set aside the Amildar's order on the same grounds. Hence the present appeal to Govt.

2. Against this order of the Amildar, Petr. Gopaliah appealed to the Assistant Commissioner. The latter officer, in confirming the Amildar's decision, observed that the devotees of the temple objected to Gopaliah doing puja therein, wearing Janivara; that they had no objection to his doing puja, without it, and that, in the interests of the temple, it was not expedient to put him in possession of the 1/3 share of the pujarike to which he was otherwise entitled.

3. Against the foregoing order of the Assistant Commissioner, Gopaliah has now preferred an appeal to Govt, stating that his wearing the Janivara should not be deemed such a disqualification as to disentitle him to succeed to his brother's share

From the reports of enquiry held by the Amildar and the Asst. Comrs., as well as from the reports submitted by the Deputy Commissioners of the Bangalore and the Mysore Districts & the Superintendents of the Mysore Temples & the Agents it is observed that most of the Satanis do not wear Janivara, and that they could not report upon the propriety of pujaries wearing Janivara as there were none such in the temples at Mysore Sreerangapatam and Melkote The Agents employed in the Muzrai Department specifically state that the Shastras prohibit the wearing of Janiwara by the Satanis. The evidence recorded in the enquiries also shows that puja in this temple was all along being performed in the Sri Venkataramanaswami temple only by Satanis wearing no Janiwara.

A. From the reports submitted by the Deputy Commissioners of the Bangalore and the Mysore Districts & the Superintendents of the Mysore Temples & the Agents it is observed in no Mysore Temples that most of the Satanis do not wear Janiwara, and that they could not report upon the propriety of pujaries wearing Janiwara as there were none such in the temples at Mysore Sreerangapatam and Melkote The Agents employed in the Muzrai Department specifically state that the Shastras prohibit the wearing of Janiwara by the Satanis. The evidence recorded in the enquiries also shows that puja in this temple was all along being performed by Satanis wearing no Janiwara.

5. In the circumstances above, the Govt observe that

There are Satanis Pujaries wearing W 2 5 0

B. were not shastraically entitled to wear it no innovation ~~in the~~ ~~usual practice~~ should be permitted. The appellant adheres to ~~his~~ ~~Gopalaiah having not adhered~~ to custom and ~~forgive~~ gives up his Jamivara, his exclusion from the ~~his~~ 1/3 share of the puja in the temple has been rightly ordered. The appeal is accordingly

Petition Registered No. 2092, dated 20th June 1903, from Gopaliah, pujari in the temple of Sri Venkataramanaswami at Talakayalukonda, Sidlaghatta Taluk, appealing against the order of the Muzrai Assistant Commissioner of the Kolar District, declining to put him in possession of one-third share of the pujarike in the said temple, on the ground of his wearing janivara or the sacred thread contrary to custom.

(2) Letter No. 1342, dated 25th September 1903, from the Deputy Commissioner, Kolar District, submitting the records relating to the above.

(3) Rubkaries Nos. 100 and 430, dated 8th April and 5th March 1904, respectively, from the Deputy Commissioners of the Bangalore and the Mysore Districts, reporting upon the practice obtaining in their respective districts in the matter of the Satani pujaries wearing janivara.

And (4) The opinions of the Agamiks employed in the Muzrai Secretariat.

No. 3758-66—MUZ. F.64-03, DATED BANGALORE, 31ST MAY 1904.

ORDER THEREON.—One Venkatramaniah, a Satani by caste, was in possession of one-third share of pujarike in the Talakayalukonda Venkataramanaswami temple at Sidlaghatta. He having died four years ago without issue, his brother by name Gopaliah, the present appellant, petitioned the Muzrai Assistant Commissioner of the district, praying that he might be appointed to the share of the pujarishp which was enjoyed by his deceased brother Venkatramaniah. The Amildar of the Sidlaghatta Taluk to whom the petition was referred held, after due enquiry that the petitioner was entitled to succeed to his brother's share, but declined to allow him to do the puja work in the temple on the ground of his wearing janivara, which was objected to by the other two hissedars as well as the devotees of the temple. The Muzrai Assistant Commissioner, Mr. K.R. Srinivasiengar, to whom an appeal was preferred, confirmed the Amildar's decision on the same grounds. Hence the present appeal to Government.

2. From the records of enquiry held by the Amildar and the Assistant Commissioner as well as from the reports submitted by the Deputy Commissioners of the Bangalore and the Mysore Districts and the opinions of the Agamiks of the Muzrai Secretariat, it is observed that in no Muzrai temples are there any Satani pujaries wearing "ಜನಿವಾರ." The evidence recorded in the enquiries also shows that puja in this temple was all along being performed by Satanis wearing no janivara.

3. In these circumstances the Government observe that no innovation should be permitted. Unless the appellant adheres to custom and gives up his janivara, his exclusion from the one-third share of the pujarike in the temple has been rightly ordered. The appeal is accordingly rejected.

Offg. Secretary, Muz. Dept.

To—The Deputy Commissioner, Kolar District, returning the records
The Deputy Commissioners, Bangalore and Mysore Districts, returning enclosures.
The Deputy Commissioners of other Districts, for information.
The Palace Controller, Mysore, for information.
